

Practice Style-B

Learning Focus

The learning focus of the Practice Style is to initiate individual and private practice of a memory/reproduction task while receiving private feedback from the teacher.

* All subject matter has content that is appropriate for the different teaching styles. Physical activities were selected to more visually convey the decision-making concept of each style.