

Command Style - A

Subject Matter Objectives

When the Command style is achieved, the following subject matter objectives are reached:

- ▶ To reproduce a model by immediate performance
- ▶ To achieve accuracy and precision of performance
- ▶ To achieve immediate results
- ▶ To achieve a synchronized performance
- ▶ To adhere to a predetermined model
- ▶ To master subject matter skills
- ▶ To perpetuate cultural traditions and rituals
- ▶ To use time efficiently
- ▶ To cover more material
- ▶ Others

Behavior Objectives

When the Command style is achieved, the following behavioral objectives are reached:

- ▶ To socialize the individual into the norms of the group
- ▶ To achieve conformity and uniformity
- ▶ To build group identity and pride
- ▶ To enhance the esprit de corps
- ▶ To follow directions on cue
- ▶ To achieve specific aesthetic standards
- ▶ To develop habits and routines
- ▶ To perpetuate cultural traditions, ceremonies, and rituals
- ▶ To control groups or individuals
- ▶ To instill safety procedures
- ▶ To adhere to a particular kind of discipline (Each style has its own discipline)