

Convergent Discovery-Style G

Behavior Objectives

When the Convergent Discovery style is achieved, the following behavioral objectives are reached:

- ▶ To engage in convergent discovery - the production of the one correct response
- ▶ To activate logic, reasoning, and sequenced problem solving skills
- ▶ To construct a specific sequence and search for the cognitive operations that produce the temporary hierarchy that will solve the problem
- ▶ To experience the cognitive and emotional exhilaration that accompanies the eureka experience
- ▶ Others
